

Why do you disturb me morsel?

I seek the tome of knowledge!

What knowledge do you seek?

I want to stay young forever!

The secret of eternal youth??

Yes!

Then I will come with you...

You know where it is?

Not for certain, the world is vast and full of wonders. But if it is knowledge you seek. I will be your guide.

Come, climb upon my back.

Where are your wings?

I am a sea dragon. One must swim through oceans of knowledge to earn the gift of flight.

You never told me your name...

My father gave it to me, I never liked it.

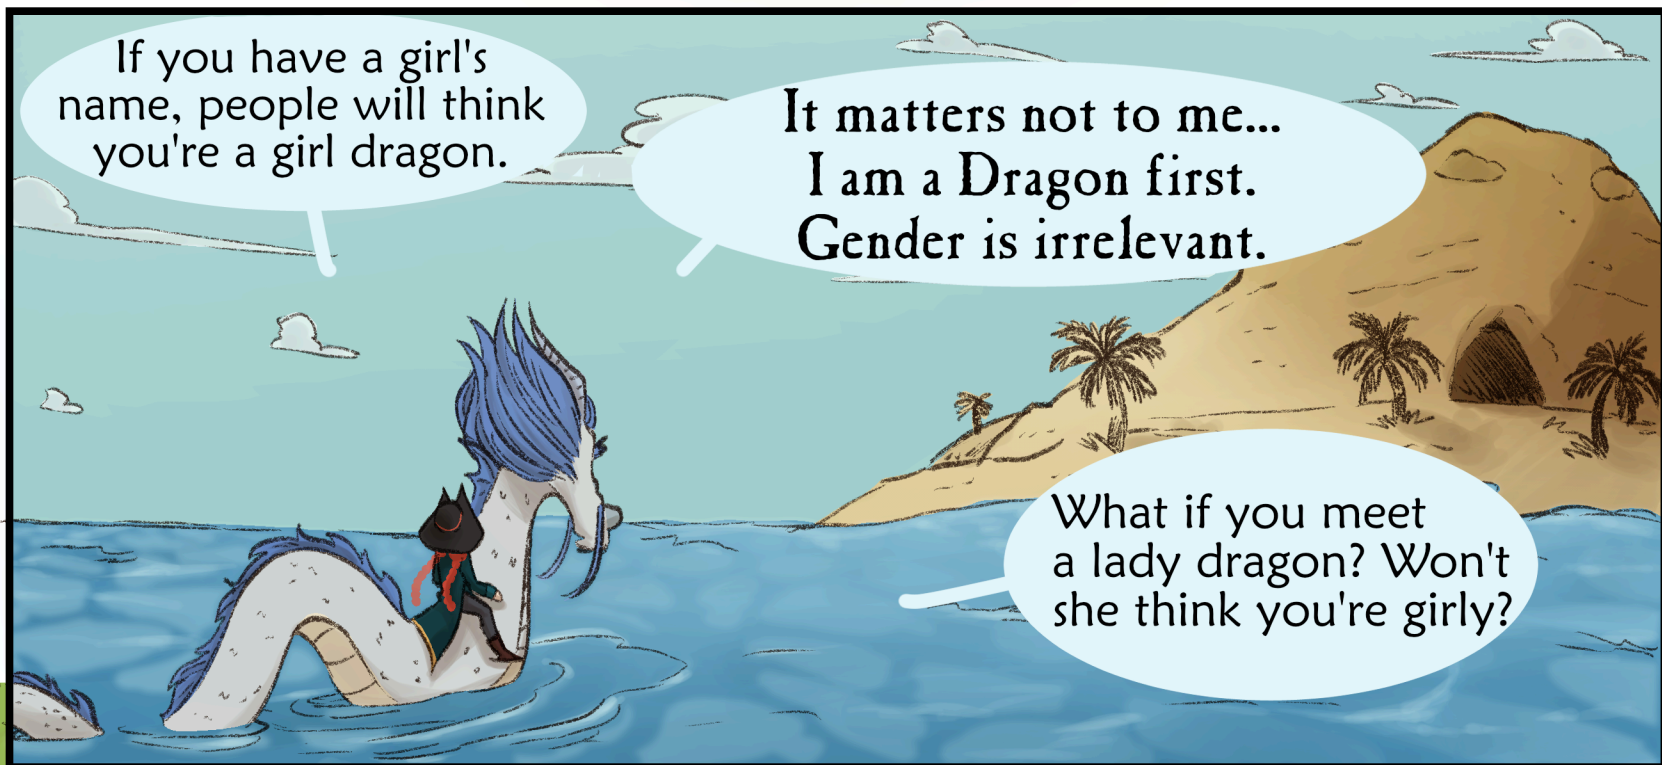

So pick a new one?

What about Sophie?

That's a girl's name.

What of it?

If you have a girl's name, people will think you're a girl dragon.

It matters not to me... I am a Dragon first. Gender is irrelevant.

What if you meet a lady dragon? Won't she think you're girly?

HA! Have you seen a dragon defend its brood? Would that other dragons feared me as much as a child-burdened mother!

Well I'm the fearsome lady of this duo. You stick with a boy's name.

I see...

I am Hector. And I am pleased to meet you... Jessa the Pirate Queen.
